Get the Code

To add the tile to your website:

1. Get a Walk Score I.D. (WSID) by entering your website's domain below. Enter the base domain only, e.g. "yourdomain.com". If your page is on a subdomain, like "test.this.com", just enter "this.com":

Your WSID:

2. Copy the code below onto your website

```
<script type="text/javascript"> var ws_address = "3422-A Poipu Road, Koloa, Hawaii"; var ws_width = "500"; </script> <script type="text/javascript" src="http://walkscore.com/tile/show-tile.php?wsid=3755f6800734815b42bc00a651ebe7b3" > </script>
```

If you have any trouble getting the code to work, read our troubleshooting guide.

Parameters

You can use the following parameters to customize the tile:

- Required parameters:
 - ws_address - The address the tile will center on. Note: you may want to write this parameter dynamically using server-side scripting to populate it with an address from your database. Example: `var ws_address = "1501 Pike Place, Seattle, WA, 98101";`
 - ws_width - The pixel width of the tile. Note: For widths less than 450, the tile will change to a single column layout. Example: `var ws_width = "600";`
- Styling the iframe that contains the tile:
 - ws_iframe_css - Any css you want applied to the iframe element (default: none). Example: `var ws_iframe_css = "margin-left: 30px; border: 1px solid #c4dceb;";`
- The frame around the map:
 - ws_map_frame_color - A color for the double frame (default: #999) . Example: `var ws_map_frame_color = "#999";`
- The score and accompanying text:
 - ws_score_color - A color for the score (default: #000). Example: `var ws_score_color = "#000";`
 - ws_headline_color - A color for the text around the score (default: #888).

Walk Score Buzz

Selected Walk Score press:

"Buyers want it all within walking distance. The next hot market could be homes in walkable neighborhoods."

—National Association of Realtors

"I work in real estate here in DC and I've had to put together maps like this for marketing purposes. I'm going to recommend Walk Score to all our sales agents."

—Emily L., Agent

"Placing your business or home in a location that does not depend 100% on the automobile is a good idea for many reasons and Walk Score makes that decision deliciously visible."

—Triple Pundit Blog

Example: `var ws_headline_color = "#888";`

- Additional colors:

- ws_category_color - A color for the category names (default: #777).
